Deseo saber si se puede comprar un caballo y una mula para el trabajo en el campo de San Juan de los Rios de Guayaquil. El precio de un caballo bueno es de diez a doce duros y el de una mula de seis a ocho.
 Si se quiere comprar en Guayaquil, se debe ir a la plaza de San Juan, que esta en la esquina de la calle de San Juan y la de San Francisco. Allí se venden los animales de trabajo. Se debe ir temprano, a las seis de la mañana.
