

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is dense and spans most of the page, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily scribbled over. The script is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly stained paper. The overall appearance is that of a well-used, possibly legal or administrative, document.

Fragment of handwritten text visible on the right edge of the page, continuing from the main body of text.
